HARTSHILL, NUNEATON

Christmas Letter

Dear Friends,

This time last year when I sat down to write the letter for the Christmas edition of the church magazine, I like so many others, did not know what the year 2020 was going to bring. In this 'unprecedented' year many of us have had to find new ways of working and coping. Very few people were prepared for it!

The day that Jesus was born very few people were prepared for it! The significance of that first Christmas was not really understood. Jesus, born in a stable was the expected Messiah - God with us. His birth was the fulfilment of God's promise to his people.

In this season of Advent, with Christmas fast approaching, many of us are busy planning without knowing quite what shape the season and celebration will bring. But 'Advent' literally means 'coming' or 'arrival'. Advent is a season of Hope.

With his coming, Jesus brought the promise of a hope-filled future. A future promise of God's constant presence with us, a promise of joy and blessing, a light to our paths, and an assurance of His great love for each one of us.

The birth of Jesus was Good News! Emmanuel - God with us. Whatever the circumstances of our lives.

So, may this season be one where we recognise the Hope we have as Christians.

May I wish you and your family and friends a Happy and Blessed Christmas and may the New Year be one in which we rebuild hope and confidence in every sphere of our lives. "For great is his love towards us, and the faithfulness of the Lord endures forever" Psalm 117 v 2

With Love from Sally

Christingle

The church will be unable to host a Christingle service this year due to Covid restrictions.

Instead we will be offering a "Take Away" Christingle pack. This will be a kit containing everything needed to make a Christingle at home. These will be available to collect on Christmas Eve (10am to 11 am and then 2pm to 3pm) from outside the church.

However, they will need to be pre-ordered and information about how to order them will be on the Church's web site

<http://www.holytrinityhartshill.co.uk/>

and via the Holy Trinity Church , Hartshill page

<https://www.achurchnearyou.com/church/12983/>

or Hartshill Community page on Social media. Also refer to Heather and Sharon's pastoral letter.

We do hope you will want to join in making your own Christingle and you will be helping to support the work of the Church of England's Children's Society.

Church Services

The Government announced this week that restrictions on public worship are to be lifted after the current lockdown expires on 2nd December.

Although we are currently awaiting further advice from the Church of England, we are anticipating that church services will be able to take place at Holy Trinity and St Peters next Sunday December 6th at our normal times.

Arrangements will be as before. To be Covid 19 safe we will still be restricted on numbers that can be accommodated within each church building. So, if you would like to attend a church service please either phone or e mail Heather. It may not always be possible to fit everyone in on a particular Sunday especially during the Christmas period.

So please do not just turn up unless you have received confirmation from either Heather or Sharon that you are able to come. This is so important as we do not want to turn anyone away. Heather will devise a rota system if necessary.

A reminder that face masks (face shields are not a suitable substitution) must be worn while in Church (the only exemption being the service leaders and preachers who can remove them temporarily to talk).

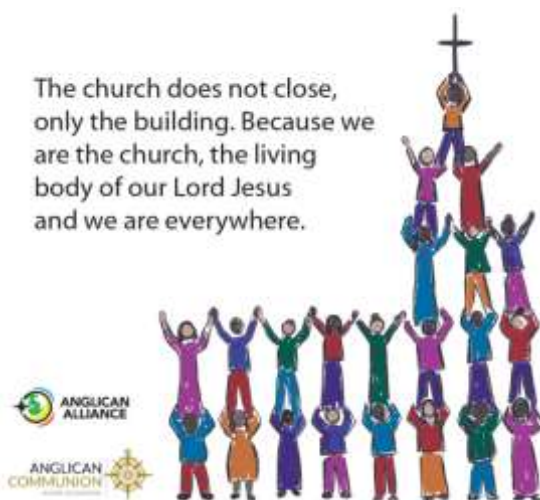

In line with Government restrictions for Tier 3, which we are in, those attending will not be able to interact with anyone outside a household or support bubble. Please do respect this while on Church premises.

We will continue to email out our virtual services. If you know anyone who would like to receive our services by email, then please let Heather or Sharon know.

The Churches' Premises outside services are closed to everyone and entry can only take place with the agreement of Heather or in her absence the Churchwardens – please do not attempt to access them with any keys that you may have.

We would ask for your prayers during what is going to be a difficult situation for our Churches and also, we would love to hear of anyone who needs prayer during these difficult and worrying times.

Christian Union are mission teams operating at the heart of university and college campuses. They are led by students, resourced by CU staff workers and supported by local churches. Their aim is to reach students for Christ.

In 1919 Norman Grubb, a young student at Cambridge University had one overwhelming urge - to get around to all the rooms of the men in his college and witness to them about Christ. He did this with some urgency and a lot of commitment, and a number of students came to know the Lord Jesus. He had a vision that every university and college in Britain and around the world should have its evangelical and witnessing Christian Union. From small beginnings (as is so often the case) this spread into the world-wide Christian Union Fellowship.

Much has changed since those early days but CU - the students, staff and supporters still live to speak for Jesus whilst at university. Student life today sees many students affected by debt, loneliness and pressure and sadly, increasingly few students nowadays come from church backgrounds or have any biblical knowledge or Christian faith. The CU exists to give every student on campus an opportunity to hear about Jesus. Over one million gospels have been given by students, to other students and hundreds of students are coming to faith each year through the work of Christian Union. Good news indeed.

CU members are non-denominational and they welcome students from different backgrounds, denominations and church traditions. They organize special events and mission weeks including evangelistic lunchbars.

The organization can provide New Student Welcome packs to help students adapt, settle in and make friends, and for those students who are already Christians before going off to university they can help them find a local church and a new Christian family whilst they are far from home.

They also run Impact Groups where like-minded students can come together to study the Bible and have meaningful discussions in small groups.

New students who started university this autumn and find themselves isolated in lockdown must be finding great comfort through Christian Union groups.

Listen to a Sunday Service from Coventry Cathedral

We're acutely aware that not everyone has access to the internet and so have now started a service which means that you can listen to the latest recording of a Sunday service from Coventry Cathedral over the telephone. You can choose between listening to the whole service, hearing just the sermon or enjoying an anthem sung by our virtual choir. The number to dial is 02476 939700. You pay just the cost of a local call – which may well be included in your phone package anyway. Of course, if you haven't got internet access you won't be able to read this – so, next time you're on the phone or writing a note to someone who might be interested, please let them know. Thank you.

Also, the Church of England provides Daily Hope, a 24 hour free phone line.

Thank You – Holy Trinity, Hartshill.

‘Freely you have received....freely give’ (Matthew 10:8^b) Such simple and unambiguous teaching from the Bible that we try and put into practice as a church. We have in recent years allocated money at the end of the year to give to charity as part of our ‘giving’ as a church. We aim to support one local charity and one overseas (development) charity. We try to give it to people or projects that we know make a real and practical difference and we also try and support organisations that are good stewards of what we send. We were, because of your generosity to the church, able to give the full £1,000 that we try and send each year. We split it equally between the local food bank and ‘Aim for Change’ and we received the following thank you letters.

We are blessed to be a blessing....bless you... for enabling us to bless others. Heather.

Letter from Food Bank

We have received the following letter from Nuneaton Foodbank after Holy Trinity PCC decided that one of the Church’s Charity donations should go to this particular charity this year to recognise the wonderful work it does to meet those in need in the local area.

“On behalf of the Trustees of the Nuneaton Foodbank, and in particular the people in crisis who we meet, I write to thank the congregation at Holy Trinity Church, Hartshill, for the very generous donation of £500.00. It was most kind of the PCC to think of donating to the Foodbank.

Please be assured that your donation will be used to purchase food and ancillary products to support those people who come to us, following professional agency referrals, when they are in crisis.

During this difficult time local people and groups, such as Holy Trinity PCC, have responded most generously to ensure we have the necessary money to purchase essential items. Our concern about the long haul has become a reality as a second spike nationally is rapidly becoming a reality. Many thanks again for supporting the work of Nuneaton Foodbank.

Stay safe.

Yours sincerely

David Treasurer and Trustee of Nuneaton Foodbank”

Letter from Aim for Change

This is the second charity that the Church supports and has done for a number of years.

Aim for Change provides education, healthcare and self-sufficiency projects to underprivileged and vulnerable children and adults living in remote parts of Uganda and Pakistan.

This is a thank you note from Aim for Change to the donation sent.

Dear Wendy + Friends at Holy Trinity
I do hope and pray you are all keeping well + see from Covid. We are home, in such a surreal time.
Thank you for your generous donation towards God's work in Uganda + Pakistan. Your gift will be used to support our students in higher education, so many young people's lives are changing, due to such generous support.
Throughout this year during the pandemic we have helped many families in both countries suffering starvation. Also supported our street project in Mbale, amazing Grace School + orphanage, individual families whose children we have in education, school + orphanage in Pakistan, + the refugee colony. These are some of the projects we have helped overcome starvation.
May God bless you all + keep you safe + well.

Foodbank - what we can continue to do

Due to the restrictions of the volunteers / space at the local foodbank warehouse we are still not able to continue with the bringing of items to Church or deliveries to the warehouse.

This is at a time when the Food Bank is still under huge pressure.

The Food Bank is still working with its volunteers and there are collection points in most supermarkets. If you are visiting a supermarket for your own shopping please consider adding a few items to donate in this way. A list of the most urgently required items can be found on the food bank website.

Can we urge everyone to consider if they can give a donation of money?

Please visit their website- www.nuneaton.foodbank.org.uk and click on the Donate button at the top right of the page.

Sharon's Recipe - Chocolate and Orange Christmas Pudding with White Chocolate Orange Sauce (Serves 8)

pudding Ingredients

125g butter, at room temperature and softened

175g dark brown sugar

2 large eggs, beaten

4 tbsp creme fraiche

zest of 2 oranges

Keep the zested 2 oranges

2 tsp essence of orange

125g plain flour

50g cocoa

2 tsp baking powder

1/2 tsp bicarbonate of soda

1-2 tbsp milk (of required)

25g desiccated coconut

Method Pudding

1. Butter and base line a 1 litre pudding basin.
2. Cut out a rectangle of baking parchment and create a pleat along its length and keep to one side
3. Cut out a rectangle of foil and fold a crease in that two. Set to one side with the string.
4. Sieve the flour, cocoa, baking powder and bicarbonate of soda together and set aside
5. Place the butter and sugar in a large mixing bowl and cream together with an electric whisk until pale and creamy.
6. Add the crème fraise and whisk in.
7. Gradually whisk in the eggs making sure it is well mixed with each addition. If the mixture starts to curdle put a dessertspoon of the flour mixture into the mix and beat in and continue to add the eggs and even more flour mixture if needed until all the egg is beaten in. Add the essence of orange and whisk in well.
8. Add the coconut, nuts, dried fruit, cherries and chocolate chips and gently stir in with a metal spoon.

25g chopped nuts – any such as walnuts, pecan, macadamia, walnut, almond

50g glace cherries, washed and quartered

25g chocolate chips

Greaseproof paper

Kitchen foil

1 litre pudding basis

Pan large enough to hold the pudding basin comfortable and its lid

String

White Chocolate Orange Sauce

Ingredients

300g segments of Terry's White

Chocolate Orange (2 Terry's

Choc Oranges)

100g butter

500 ml double cream

4 tbsp demerara sugar

Zest of 1 orange

9. Sift the flour, cocoa, baking powder and bicarbonate of soda again over the mixture and stir in with a metal spoon until completely incorporated. Add a little milk if the mixture seems a little too stiff. Set aside
10. Thinly slice the first of the 2 zested oranges and use a big slice and put it on the bottom of the buttered basin, use other slices, biggest ones first to partially line the basin, finish with the smallest slices at the top edge of the basin. You will probably need to use some of the second orange as well. These will look pretty when the pudding is turned out as they cover the pudding so arrange them neatly.
11. Spoon the mixture into the basin. It will fill it to the top. Level off the top and then cover with the baking paper. Make sure it fits over the top of the sides of the basin and secure with some string then place the foil over the top and secure in place with string as well then trim off any excess paper and foil. Pop into the pan, ensuring that the water comes up two thirds up the side. Cover the pan with the lid and bring the water to the boil and then simmer for 2 hours.

Meanwhile make the Chocolate orange Sauce

1. Over a double broiler, (heatproof bowl over a saucepan of water) gently melt the chocolate – stir it often as white chocolate can very easily granulate so by stirring often you make sure that it is evenly heated and you won't accidentally overheat it.
2. Meanwhile, stir the remaining ingredients together in a small saucepan and heat until evenly combined.
3. Remove both pots from the heat, and add the orange cream bit by bit to the melted chocolate stirring it together each time you pour some cream into the chocolate.
4. Once well combined, serve immediately or, once cooled, pour into a jar and refrigerate until needed. You can serve it cold or warm it up and it will keep for around 3 days.

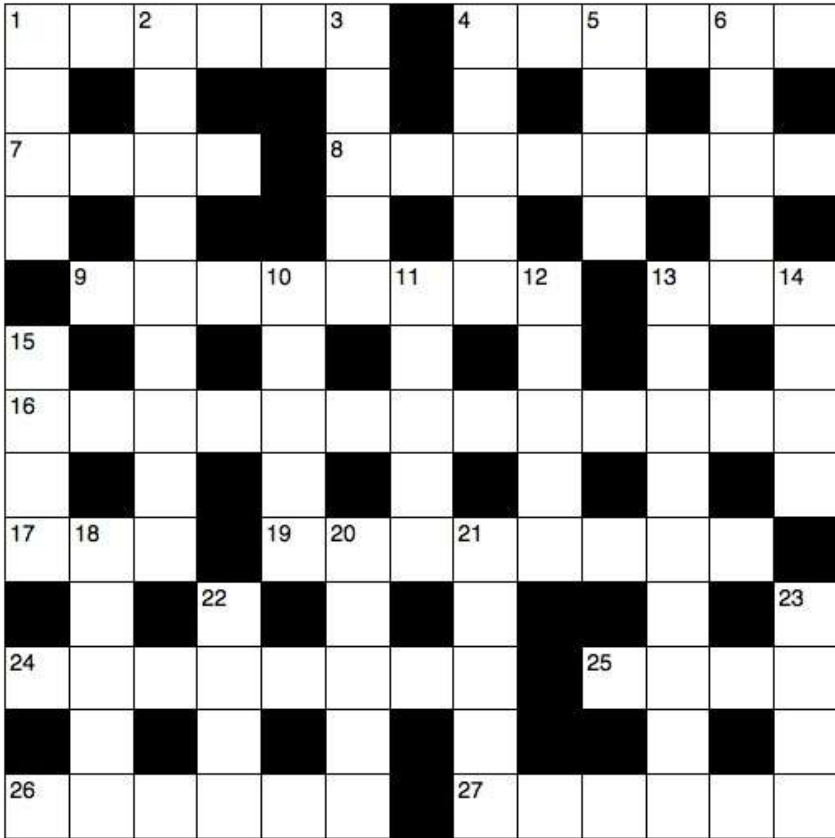

Most of us will not want to be steaming our pudding for 2 hours on Christmas day so it is recommended that you either make the day before or freeze the pudding because unlike traditional ones they will not keep for weeks without going stale. On Christmas morning defrost at room temperature for 2 hours. To reheat put it in the microwave on medium for 5 minutes.

Gently reheat the White Chocolate Orange Sauce in a saucepan on the hob.

Serve at the table so that everyone sees the pudding at its best when it is whole. It goes into 8 good sized portions so serve into individual bowls and pour the sauce round it. Don't pour it over as it soaks in too much.

If you don't like coconut, cherries, dried fruit, chocolate chips or nuts just substitute by taking out one item and replace with more of another. You could vary it by using dates, prunes, popping candy etc just make sure that the weight (and volume) is roughly as in the recipe so that the sponge can hold the filling – hope you enjoy!

The First Christmas

It never snows at Christmas in that dry and dusty land.

Instead of freezing blizzards, there are palms and drifting sands, and years ago a stable and a most unusual star and three wise men who followed it, by camel, not by car, while, sleepy on the quiet hills, a shepherd gave a cry.

He'd seen a crowd of angels in the silent starlit sky.

In the stable, ox and ass stood very still and calm and gazed upon the baby, safe and snug in Mary's arms.

And Joseph, lost in shadows, face lit by an oil lamp's glow stood wondering, that first Christmas Day, two thousand years

NATIVITY PLAY

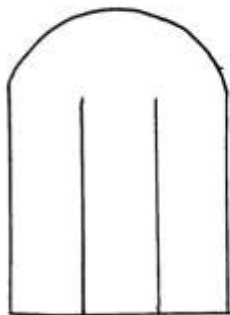

To see the story of the first Christmas through the eyes of little children makes it fresh and new. I like the story of the little boy who so wanted to be Joseph but was picked as the inn keeper instead. All went well until the nativity play started and Mary and Joseph arrived at the inn. The boy playing the innkeeper greeted them with 'Come in Mary love, there's plenty of room for you, but Joseph can get lost!'

Mary may insist that her teddy is the Baby Jesus, the angels may trip over their robes made from sheets, but every nativity play shows the wonder of the story of the first Christmas when the son of God was born a baby, like us. Tea towels used as shepherd's headdresses and angels' haloes made from wire coat hangers only serve to underline the humanity of it all. A baby born in a stable – a simple story that changes the world.

LOTS OF LOVE

Time to make some Christmas decorations? Cut out two shapes like the pattern below, one in red card, one in green card. Don't forget to cut the slits.

Interlock the 2 shapes by weaving the strips under and over their opposite colour. This will give you a heart shape. Use a little glue to hold them together if needed. Punch a hole in the top at the centre and thread with cord to hang your decoration. You can make lots in different colours and decorate them with sequins or stickers too. Nice symbols of love to decorate your Christmas.

A Very Special Baby

JESUS WAS BORN ABOUT 2,000 YEARS AGO IN THE SMALL TOWN OF BETHLEHEM, NEAR JERUSALEM.

AN ANGEL HAD TOLD MARY SHE WOULD HAVE A VERY SPECIAL BABY.

...YOU MUST CALL YOUR BABY JESUS

MARY AND JOSEPH MADE THE LONG JOURNEY FROM NAZARETH TO BETHLEHEM. THEY HAD BEEN ORDERED THERE FOR THE CENSUS.

BUT THE TOWN WAS FULL

...WHICH IS WHERE JESUS WAS BORN.

SHEPHERDS IN FIELDS NEARBY RACED TO SEE THE BABY

SORRY... I'VE NO ROOM!

THE ONLY SHELTER THEY COULD FIND WAS A STABLE...

AN ANGEL HAD TOLD THEM WHERE JESUS HAD BEEN BORN.

WISE MEN CAME FROM THE EAST. THEY TOO WANTED TO SEE JESUS. THEY HAD BEEN GUIDED BY A STAR.

THEY BROUGHT GIFTS OF GOLD, FRANKINCENSE AND MYRRH.

BUT MARY, JOSEPH AND BABY JESUS SOON HAD TO ESCAPE TO EGYPT...

...AS KING HEROD WANTED JESUS DEAD!!
